Recommendation

The Committee is asked to note Faculty progress toward the achievement of sector leading completion rates.

2. Purpose of Paper

To update on progress to increase the number of learners successfully completing their course.

3. Strategic Context and Key Points

We have set an ambition to deliver sector leading student attainment for recognised qualifications (Student Experience Strategy) and 'to deliver excellence in performance' (Strategic Priority 5).

4. Impact and Implications

Successful Completion rates are a critical measure of the College's performance. Mindful of Covid, the College might expect to see a much altered pattern of completion rates this year, with further withdrawal rates increasing as we approach the end of courses. This report signals that rates are increasing, but that it remains difficult to be precise about end of year performance.

5. Risks to the College

The reputational risks of declining completion rates are somewhat mitigated by the wider environmental factors, and the expectation that the Scottish Funding Council is expected to pause all target performance reporting in this Covid year.

It will still be important, for the college to perform well overall, being especially clear on the numbers continuing and expected to complete next year.
